EMPLOYEE INFORMATION

NAME: _____ SS NO: _____

ADDRESS: _____ PHONE NO: _____

PLEASE CHECK ONE: Married Single

IMPORTANT NOTICE

If you are legally married, your primary beneficiary is automatically your spouse. Neither you nor your spouse may elect otherwise.

If you are not married, your primary beneficiary is any person that you designate to receive death benefits under the plan, if any are payable.

Regardless of your marital status, it is important to designate a beneficiary — and to keep your designation up-to-date. If you fail to designate a beneficiary — or your beneficiary is not living at the time of your death — then the benefits due will be paid in accordance with the plan and the plan's administrative procedures.

Should your spouse or other beneficiary fail to survive you by at least 30 days — or if you and your beneficiary die in a common accident or disaster — you will have been deemed to have died last.

This designation supersedes and replaces all previous designations under this Plan, provided it has been dated and initialed by the Plan Administrator's authorized delegate, before your date of death.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Use this form to designate or change your primary and/or secondary beneficiary.
2. Where more than one primary and/or secondary beneficiary is designated, the amount to be paid to each beneficiary must be clearly set forth by designating fractions or portions to be received.
3. Your secondary beneficiary will receive a benefit only if (a) your primary beneficiary dies before you, or (b) your primary beneficiary dies before receiving the total survivor benefit.
4. If you wish to designate a minor as beneficiary, appointment of a custodian is recommended (see sample designation #12 below). If a minor (or other person incapable of giving valid receipt) is designated beneficiary and has no surviving parent, custodian or conservator, the Plan Administrator may direct that payment be made to the person or institution responsible for the care and maintenance of such individual.
