What Are Your Dreams for Family Catechesis?

Presented by:
Dr. Jo Ann Paradise

When taking on a new challenge in your life, first you consider what you want the outcome to be. Do we give that same attention to our family catechesis? We will gather to explore the wanted outcomes guided by the Holy Spirit in Church teaching. Then we will look at the practical and necessary components a family process needs in order to bring about those outcomes.

About the Presenter: Dr. Jo Ann Paradise is a national speaker and Spiritual Director who comes to us from Pittsburgh, PA. Jo Ann is currently the author of Awaken: Becoming Disciples of the Word, an adult, liturgically based catechetical resource from Pflaum Publishing. Jo Ann served as a Catechetical Leader in the Diocese of Pittsburgh for over 32 years as well as an elementary and high school teacher. She has given retreats to women and parish staff for over twenty-five years. She is appreciated for her ability to connect God's Word with our day-to-day lives through storytelling.
